

AHS: Importance of Masking (in Low German)

This five-minute video from Alberta Health Services, South Zone, is offered in Low German to share information about the importance of masking to prevent COVID-19. This is the first in a series of short AHS informational videos in Low German we look forward to sharing with our community.