Sleep and Kids

Here's an interesting read on sleep and children. Psychology Today: Children and Sleep

There's a MYSTERY in our Learning Commons!

Our Learning Commons is always a favourite space in Central School, filled with engaging activity of all sorts! Recently...there has been some curious activity... it seem there has been a team of bandits stealing books!

Mrs. P has been gathering clues and each class is working hard, using their detective skills, to search out the team of bandits. Today, they caught the first bandit - it was Mrs. Perini!

Students across all grades are having non-stop fun and using some very deep thinking as they piece together clues about the mystery.

Thank you, Mrs. P, for enriching our school with some wonderful experiences for all of our students!

Grade 5 Students go Curling!

Our Grade 5 students will spend 4 blocks of time, this week and next, learning the sport of curling. Lead by our very own Ms. Hanes, students have enjoyed being on the ice at the Taber Curling Club. Fun times!

Congratulations to our current March nominees for the WOW Wall!

Have a FABULOUS week!
