Reports

- Principal's report – Coral –
- Proud of both staff and students on amazing success & growth.
- The pilot program has begun for EAs to help support them with more training. They can work through modules and work with collaborations on appointed PD days.
- Teacher's PD focus is teaching sprints that are created to break down their personal learning goals.
- Book ministerial order update end of October to comply with book ban.
- There will be a new program made public with the book ban so parents can see the list of books banned from our school.
- There will be a parent council booth at the tri school bbq on Sept 17th, we will sit next to the other parent council booth from high school & jr high. Parents can view the library books then as well.
- Labour dispute will take effect Oct 6th IF there is a strike. The school knows as much as the news does. Not much information is being shared.
- School messenger will send a text between 6:30 and 7:00 AM if there is ever a school closure. At -40 the school must close, so keep an eye on the weather come the colder months.
- We have an estimated 220 students enrolled.
- Quest theatre production during education week is $1500
- Smore will be monthly, there will be an "at a week's glance" every week sent home. – parent council approved.
- Bookfair date will be during open house in February. Scholastic will be this year.
- Parent council would like to buy 1 book per student – estimated $2300
- We would like to open an account at the bottle depot to bring in donations from parents/community members.

- Hot lunch - Sarah F
